Director's Meeting

Tuesday, 12 February 1952

PRESENT: General Smith, Messrs. Dulles, Becker, Wisner, Wolf, Hedden, Earman.

HR70-14

General Smith:

[Redacted]

10-14

b. Referred to the item in the Log concerning [Redacted] intelligence collaboration and asked what we intended to do to implement our agreement. Mr. Wisner noted that we had cabled our people in [Redacted] to "clean up" the action indicated in the above-cited item. (Tripartite staybehind agreement is awaiting formal approval by the [Redacted] Defense Chief of Staff.) This has been done & report made to DCI on 2-19-52.

c. Discussed General Ridgway's letter concerning intelligence from covert sources and indicated to Mr. wisner what should be included in the reply he is drafting for the Director's signature. In this connection, the DCI stated that as soon as a U.S. Ambassador was appointed to Japan, our allegiance would be changed to him. DCI is preparing reply.

d. Directed that Mr. Becker attend all future IAC meetings and be prepared to take over such meeting in his (the Director's) absence.

Mr. Dulles:

[Redacted]

b. Stated that he had approached Mr. George Perkins of the Department of State concerning our participation in the forthcoming State conference with the Chiefs of Mission from the Iron Curtain countries and had been turned down. After some discussion, the DCI directed that we not pursue this matter further. Mr. Wisner noted that in all probability we would get a report on this conference from [Redacted]
